More Milestones in 2018

Jim McGraw continued to deliver his Leadership, Empathy & The Power of Persuasion (LEAPPAhead) program at no charge to new audiences in 2018. The highly acclaimed program shares ethical and effective skills that Jim, Ewing Kauffman and other successful entrepreneurs employed as they built their businesses.

Highlights of the year include:

- Presentations to a growing list of area colleges and universities including Rockhurst, Park U., Pittsburg State and Benedictine College, plus talks to area business and central city organizations.
- Production of four animated videos covering critical skills such as empathy, leadership, clarity, balanced decision-making and more. They are free and available online at www.LEAPPAhead.com.
- Publication of Jim's monthly Reflections column covering important national policy issues.

"2019 will be another exciting year for us," Jim says. "Visit our website or call 816-215-5237 to let us know if there's a group or school where our program would be of interest. There is NO CHARGE."

TODAY'S THOUGHT

*May your troubles be less and your blessings be more,
and nothing but happiness
come through your door.*
